In commemoration of World Arthritis Day
The Jordanian Society of Rheumatology
Invites you to the
First Jordanian Rheumatology Scientific Day
Bridging Research and Practice in Jordan

Thursday
OCTOBER 10th 2024

Kempinski Hotel, Amman, Jordan

The scientific day is dedicated to revealing research conducted in Jordan by the rheumatology community.

The primary objectives are to increase the visibility of research activities, strengthen the field of research in the country, and foster collaborative connections both locally and internationally. Both oral and poster abstracts will be presented.
